

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

In the cause between Jan Stevens, as pltf. on the one side, and Jan van Bremen, as deft. on the other, It is by the W: Court decreed, that deft. shall pay the sum of fl. 12. zewant to the deft. with the costs herein incurred, and they order the deft. further to pay the Sheriff or enter security before his departure for the six gl., in which he is condemned according to judgment dated 27th March last for the behoof of the Poor. Ady as above.

In the matter in dispute between Fredrick Lubbersen, on the one side, and Geertie, widow of Bartel Maenes, on the other, regarding a matter of a/c. were appointed as arbitrators Sieur Jacobus Backer, War-naer Wessels and Lodowyck Post, who are requested to examine the a/c and to hear parties' arguments and to reconcile them in this regard if possible; if not to report their award to this W Court. Ady as above.

In the matter in question between Egbert Mynders, pltf. on the one side, and Andries Andries, on the other, It is by the W Court decreed, that deft. shall, according to his obligation satisfy and pay the pltf. before his departure from this City or enter sufficient bail therefor and pay costs incurred herein. Ady as above.

Jacob Vis, pltf. v/s Teunis Cray, deft. Pltf. demands from deft. according to obligation made by deft. in company with Hans Pietersen a balance of one hundred and forty nine guilders 10 stiv: and further fl. 151 according to a/c for beer received by deft. from the pltf. and John Withart; with costs. Deft. admits the passing of the obligation, but says he paid his portion to the pltf. and that pltf. told him, he discharged the deft. from the remainder of the obligation and assumed Hans Pieters for payment. Regarding the fl. 151 for beer, he says his wife paid that to the pltf., which was, on the other hand, denied by pltf. The W: Court having heard parties, condemn deft. to pay said sum to the pltf. with costs, unless he can sufficiently prove, that pltf. assumed the abovenamed Hans Pietersen as payer and that he paid pltf. for the beer.

Balthazaer de Haert, pltf. v/s Joost van der Linde, deft. Pltf. delivering in his declaration in writing and the same being read, he is ordered by the W: Court to appear when the Bench is complete, as divers of the Aldermen are now absent; and that at present the different witnesses shall be heard on both sides, testifying as follows:—Willemyntie, Huygh Barents' daughter, declares, that Annetie Jacobsen, pltf's present servant maid, brought a sheet a while ago to her house to cut some caps from it and charged her not to speak of it to M^r Balthazar, as he had forbidden her to bring it there. Huygh Barentsen declares, that he heard it stated by his wife, who is now absent, that she was present, when Joost vander Linde brought his goods and property in pawn to M^r Balthazar's brother and that she then saw it: and further that when M^r Balthazar's maid brought the above mentioned sheet to their house to be cut, his wife told him that it was one of Joost vander Linde's sheets and that she knew it very well; and therefore took a piece of the same, which was shewn to the Court, which defts. wife says is a piece of her sheet and offers to confirm the same on oath. Elsie Barents declares, that she had sewed some days at M^r Balthazar de Haerts house and said M^r Balthazar charged her to take the marks out of some sheets, being sheets similar to those of Joost vander Linde's, which she said she refused, and said—I had rather make six marks than to rip one out; whereupon M^r Balthazar himself took a needle from her cushion and began to rip it. Ady as above.

This day, Joost van der Linde told M^r Balthazar de Haert, before the Bench in open Court, that his brother is a rogue and undertook to prove the same, evidence of which M^r Balthazar demanded, that he should be required to bring forward at his own time. Ady as above.

[This day 6th June the abovenamed Joost vander Linde declares in presence of the Court, that the above was said in choler and hastiness, as he can say nothing of S^r B. de Haert and his brother, but what is honourable and virtuous; whereupon said vander Linde is with M^r Balthazar de Haerts consent, excused by the W: Court from the penalty appertaining to the committed calumny.*]

Balthazar de Haert, pltf. v/s Huygh Barentsen Kleyn, deft. Pltf. demands from deft. first fl. 6327 in zewant according to obligation and in addition 72 skepels of wheat, with costs. Deft. denies owing the obligation; demands copy of the same to answer thereunto, but promises to pay the 72 skepels of wheat within 14 days. The W: Court orders copy of the obligation to be furnished to party to answer thereunto at the next Court day. Ady as above.

Ariaen Cornelissen, pltf. v/s Wolfert Webber, deft. Pltf. says and proves by two witnesses that deft. on Saturday last abused him as corn and cattle thief, and he demands honourable and profitable reparation as more fully appears by his declaration. Deft. says, he is not aware having said so, and if so, that it was in anger and haste; declares he cannot say anything against the pltf's. good name. The W: Court having heard parties condemn deft. in a fine of 10 gl. for the Poor, with costs and parties are required henceforth to live with each other in love and friendship, under a penalty of 50 guilders against him, who shall first make any trouble between them or any manner of affront.

Andries Andriesen, pltf. v/s Egbert Meyendersen, deft. Pltf. says, that deft. has most shamefully calumniated him and accused him with many vile things; demands reparation etc. Deft. denies it and says it was spoken in sport and jest. Said parties arguing their case in open Court before the Bench, pltf. accused the deft. with being a perjurer etc. and the W: Court orders, that the Schout shall institute his action by the next Court day for the abusive words etc. and parties are then to appear again to answer thereunto. Pltf. demands from deft. on a note, dated ~~3~~8 October last, fl. 322. 10. for 129 ells of Osnaburg linen delivered him in the year 1664, with costs. Deft. admits the debt and to have given a note therefor, but maintains likewise that the Osnaburgh linen was too high. Requests some delay. Pltf. replying says, that notwithstanding he has an absolute obligation, he is willing to submit to the judgment of one or two impartial persons as to the price of the Osnaburgh linen; and also he should have given longer delay, had not the deft. given evil and insulting words instead of payment. Deft. rejoining acknowledges his fault and says, it occurred through hastiness. The W: Court having heard parties and seen the passed obligation propose to the pltf. to hold to the said obligation or to choose two arbitrators to appraise the linen, and condemn the deft. to satisfy the pltf. and to pay the costs herein incurred.

Casper Steynmets entering demands payment of a years rent of his house, hired to the City as a City school, due on the first of this month; amounting to the sum of fl. 260. Petitioner is requested to wait yet a while, as there is at present no money in the chest. Ady as above.

To the W: M^r Maior and Aldermen in N. Yorck Citté on the Island

Hans Kierstede with due reverence makes known, that he, the petitioner, appeared on the 11th Sept. 1664 in the Audience Chamber of Burgomasters and Schepens against Johannes Schevelburgh and Laurens de Sille producing a certain petition and a marginal order thereon, dated 17 June Stilo novo 1664. The petition set forth, whereas the requirant and pltf. was afraid, that the goods, effects, actions and credits of Jan Sluyter and Casper ter Smitten, merchants at Haerlem, insolvents, remaining in the estate of Hendrick van der Wallen may thro' these and other means be conveyed away and alienated, notwithstanding attachment was declared valid thereupon; he requests at the end thereof, that for the protection of his, the petitioners, arrears it may be ordered, that sufficient may be sequestrated from the effects of the abovenamed Jan Sluyter and Ter Smitten remaining in the estate of Hendrick vander Wallen and placed in the safe keeping of a faithful person. Lourens de Sille, deft., also appearing promises to detain by him whatever effects of aforesaid Sluyter and ter Smitten he may have, from which the petitioner shall obtain his pay free of costs and damage, deft. offering to enter security therefor; in consequence hereof deft. is ordered by the Burgomasters and Schepens aforesaid to perform his offer. More fully expressed in Appendix N^o 1. Petitioner again appears on the 11th of Octob. 1664 in the Honourable Court of said Burgomasters and Schepens to state, that Johannes Schevelburgh and Lauren Sille could not give any security pursuant to the decree dated 18 Sept^r 1664, Appendix N^o 1, but offer to sequester so much property as will save the requirant in this action and claim, which he has against Jan Sluyter and Casper ter Smitten; he requests that such may have effect. The Hon^{ble} Burgomasters and Schepens granted the said request and decreed, that the effects should be placed in the hands of Mr. Johannes van Brugh under inventory. More fully set forth in Appendix N^o 2.

Now tis to be considered and is notorious that the goods conveyed away from time to time are fading, decaying, diminishing in value and of less colour, and moreover the interest of the capital still runs on against the aforesaid Jan Sluyter and Casper ter Smitten, which tends to the evident damage of the aforesaid persons and in this respect the requirant remains and is obstructed in the use of his money, his good right reserved in his proof alone remaining to him; and in case of agreement nothing is done, nor is any thing sought to be done with the other creditors of the aforesaid Sluyter and ter Smitten in Holland, especially as the requirant is sufficiently well aware, that they can be effectually paid their due and protected from loss out of the personal effects of the abovementioned Sluyter and ter Smitten. The requirant, therefore considers it (with respect) to be the most useful plan, as is to be concluded from the foregoing deduction, to stay the loss and interest which said Sluyter and ter Smitten have suffered and will yet suffer thereby, also the frustrating of the employment of the money of requirant, that this Honor^{ble} Court, for good considerations and the case being set before them as related, shall please to order, authorize and appoint two honest men conversant herein, to appraise and value the goods attached under Johannes van Brugh as to their true value in Holland currency between merchant and merchant independent of all loss and damages; which authorized and appointed men then pursuant and according to their power (after previous estimation as aforesaid) shall pay the requirant from the attached goods the value and equivalent of the capital and the interest up to the effectual payment inclusive justly due to the requirant, on a/c of disbursed monies, by aforesaid Jan Sluyter and Casper ter Smitten, with offer to grant act and receipt therefor in the best form as to that appertains. And in case the requirants attornies in Holland are paid actually the capital and interest by the abovenamed Jan Sluyter and Casper ter Smitten, he is content to give sufficient security here to restore and deliver up the received effects or their equivalent, whenever sufficiently ample information of the fact shall come from Holland.

Awaiting hereupon this W. Courts favorable marginal order (Apostille) seeing, that Laureus de Sille, according to his quality, manifests his consent to the preceding deduction: Doing which

I remain

Hon^{ble} Gentlemen Your Humble Servant

Hans Kierstede.

15 May. 1666.

The above petition being read and considered by the W. Court is apostilled as follows:—Fiat Quod Petitur, and Sieurs Christoffel Hooghland and Isaacq Bedloo are admitted and authorized by the W. Court to appraise the aforesaid goods.

Deft. produces an a/c of the Vendu Master Gabrie, from which it appears that a parcel of wine was sold by him for the a/c of Pieter Rudolfus; and says further, that his, defts., wife has heard her late husband, the dec^d Rudolfus, say, that the above wines sold by vendu belonged to said Paulus Jans Kitser. The Mayor proposing, that the case be determined by a jury, parties respectively requested, that the W Court itself would please to give their judgment thereon. John Cooly appearing in Court produced a receipt w^{ch} he received since the Last Court day from John de Jardin, Whereby the s^d Jardin acknowledgeth to have received full Satisfaction by order of Court, for a debt, due unto him, from John Cooly to the summe of nine hundred and eightie pounds of tobacco, as appeares by a bill under the s^d Cooles hand Lying in the hands of Walraven Claerhout; for W^{ch} debt the s^d Walraven on the last Court day, hath obtained Judgem^t agst: the s^d Cooley, W^{ch} Judgement the Court ordered to be Void, and the s^d Walraven to pay Cost of Court.

The Worshipp^l Mayor, by Virtue of an order from the Right honn^{ble} Govern^r, haveing appointed M^r Cornelis Van Ruyven, M^r Olof Steven- sen, M^r Johannes de Peister, M^r Johannes Van Brugh, & M^r Poulus Leendersen Vande griste, to be Commission^r for heare & Examin the differances betwixt Nicasius de Sille, & wife, Concerning the Sale of their house, & other things relating to their Estate, and if possible to Endeavour a Composure to be made betwixt them, and in Case of Non Composure, to give their award & Judgement in the s^d Case in Contro- versie, as more at Large by the s^d Commission from M^r Mayor doth appeare, bearing date the 12th day of this Instant: Uppon W^{ch} the s^d Commission^r have returned the following award; In pursuance of the commission from the Mayor of this City all possible efforts were made to reconcile Mr. Sille and his wife, but finding affections and inclinations so changed and so many charges of injury, which the one maintains to have suffered from the other, they see no hope of reconciling parties and fear though they should agree to live together as man and wife, (to which Mr. Sille seems more inclined than his wife), that it would not long continue; so therefore it is necessary, in order that the creditors may no longer be withheld from their just claims, to make out forthwith a correct state- ment and inventory of all the property, real and personal, to pay the debts contracted by the married parties and to divide and share the re- mainder half and half, as we do not consider it fair, that the one should draw more from the overplus than another; since against what the wife pretends to have brought in and laid out on the children of M^r Sille (by the first bed) as well in supporting as in marrying off two daughters, may and can be reckoned his salary, which he said he brought in and which exclusive of his perquisites as Fiscal, was fl. 1200. a year in beavers and he received it from the year 1654 to 1664, unless it be agreed to open a certain marriage contract produced by the wife, which may throw more light on the matter, to which (though repeatedly requested by said wife so to do) we could not consent, since the superscription expressly directed, that it should not be opened, until after the death of one of them, and Mr. Sille cannot be counted by me as dead since by the notes kept it appears that Mr. Sille expressly declares he will not break the marriage etc. Done New York ady 23^d M^{ch} 16th 1670.

Whereas we experience to our grief, that the previously enacted and frequently renewed Placards and Ordinances against the desecration of the Sabbath of the Lord, the unlawful and unseasonable tapping on the same and after setting of the watch or drum beat, are not observed, but that many of the inhabitants almost make it a custom, in place of observing the Sabbath, as it ought to be observed, to frequent the taverns more than on other days and to take their delight in illegal exercises, to prevent and obviate which hereafter as much as possible for the future, the Schout, Burgomasters and Schepens renew the aforesaid Placards, enacted on that subject and hereby interdict and forbid within this City of N: Orange and the jurisdiction thereof from sunrise to sundown on Sunday all sorts of handicraft, trade and traffick, gaming, boat racing, or running with carts or wagons, fishing, fowling, running and picking nuts, strawberries etc. all riotous racing, calling and shouting of children in the streets, together with all unlawful exercises and games, drunkenness, frequenting taverns or taphouses, dancing, cardplaying, ballplaying, rolling nine pins or bowls etc. which is more in vogue on this than on any other day; to prohibit and prevent which, all tavern keepers and tapsters are strictly enjoined to entertain no clubs on this day from sunrise to sunset, nor permit nor suffer any games in their houses or places, on pain for the tavern keeper, who shall be found to suffer such in his house, of forfeiting for the first offence 25 gl. for the second offence 50 gl. and for the 3^d offence he shall no longer be allowed to tap and moreover forfeit a fine of one hundred guilders zeawant; and each person found on Sunday in a club or gaming shall forfeit three guilders zeawant; and if any children be caught on the street playing, racing and shouting, previous to the termination of the last preaching, the officers of the law may take their hat or upper garment, which shall not be restored to the parents, until they have paid a fine of two guilders.

The intention of the above prohibition is not, that a stranger or citizen shall not buy a drink of wine or beer for the assuaging of his thirst, but only to prevent the sitting of clubs on the Sabbath, whereby many are hindered resorting to Divine Worship.

Further, no tapsters nor tavernkeepers shall tap, present or sell any wines, brandies, beer etc, nor set any clubs on Sunday, nor on the night of any other day after setting of the watch or ringing of the bell, under the penalty and fine as above. Done in the City Hall of the City N. Orange the 28th August A^o 1673.

By Order of the Schout, Burgomasters and Schepens aforesaid.

Whereas it is considered necessary in this conjuncture of war to place this City in proper state of defence, as far as can be done with earth and sods. And since it is found by experience that the hogs, which are at present kept in great quantities within this City, have done great damage to such like works, and will undoubtedly commit the same injuries on the newly begun fortifications, unless it be prevented by prohibiting the keeping of any hogs within this City; Therefore we, Schout, Burgomasters and Schepens of this City of New Orange have thought fit for the good of this City and the preservation of its newly erecting fortifications to order and enjoin on all our good inhabitants within this City and its jurisdiction unto the Fresh Water to prepare to confine all their hogs within the time of twice 24 hours and not to suffer them to roam along the streets and highways on this side of the Fresh Water, upon forfeiture of said hogs, to be applied one half for the officer and the other half for the City.

Every one is hereby warned and put on his guard against loss. Done New Orange, Ady, the 28th August, A^o 1673.

By order of the Schout, Burgomast^{rs} and Schepens of the City N: Orange.

Item. Marten Cregier is appointed Superintendant with the engineer of the work, which the abovenamed Cregier being informed of, he accepted the same provisionally.

Further, regarding the farming of the Weigh-house it is unanimously resolved, that it should be let, to see what profit it will bring; which being set about and tried in various ways, it was at last by unanimous resolution held at fl. 3000 and resolved, that it could realise more. It is postponed till tomorrow.

At a Court of the Schout, Burgomasters and Schepens holden in the City Hall on the 31st August, A^o 1673. Thomas Walton, pltf. v/s Roelof Jansen, Butcher, deft. Pltf. demands from deft. the quantity of three ankers of rum for sheep sold. Deft. admits the debt. The arguments of parties being heard and what the deft. brought in regarding some a/cs against Goven^r Lovelace, the W. Court condemns the deft. to pay the said debt to pltf.

John Scharp, pltf. v/s Thomas Walton, deft. Pltf. demands from deft. according to a/c the sum of fl. 62. 6 and asks for payment. Deft.

fully admits to owe something to the pltf., but not so much, as the pltf. demands. The W. Court having heard the arguments of parties and examined also the pltf's book, condemns the deft. to pay the pltf. the aforesaid debt: meanwhile they declare the attachment valid.

John Sharpe, pltf. v/s Ralph Warner, deft. Pltf. demands from deft. according to judgment and a/c made up in presence of the Schout, payment of fl. 470: 2. or security. Deft. admits the debt, but maintains, it is not so much, since he disbursed the most in the ship's service and says the Governor and Capt. Manning owe him 7 @ 800 guilders. If they will pay him, he shall pay others. The W. Court condemns the deft. to pay the aforesaid debt to the pltf. and declares the attachment valid, saving his right against the Govern^r or Capt Manning etc.

Balthasar Bayard being sent for to Court, he is asked if he will also collect the Weigh-Money? Gives for Answer, No; as he has already enough to do with collecting the tapsters and Burgher excise. It is further resolved to send for Jonas Bartelsen to agree with him about the Weighhouse either to rent it or to collect the money. Who appearing absolutely refuses the farming and demands for the collection a salary of fl. 600 until the first of May next. Again appearing in Court he is asked how much per cent he will collect it for? He answers, he will have nothing to do with percentage and demands the first fl. 450. and to have the preference on it until May. He was offered four hundred and it is finally postponed until another time.

The petition of M^r Thomas Williams, referred to this W. Court by the Commanders, being examined and the abovenamed Williams entering, he is asked, whether he can produce any other proof than by book? He says No, as Capt. Lavall's books doubtless are not present. He further produces an a/c. of £366. 17. 6., which he says he paid on half the vessel, and says, that Laval has no a/c against it as he always disbursed for the ketch and her equipage. He is ordered to exhibit copy of the agreement made with Lavall, which he says remains with M^r Sharp.

In the case in question between Jan Romyn and Isack Melyn in the matter of a/c. ordered that parties be heard.
